

CM202 Teaching Children Effectively Level 1

Course Syllabus for CMI Online

I. Course description

Teaching Children Effectively™ Level 1 is a course designed to equip local church members to reach children for Christ in various settings including Good News Clubs in the community and public schools as well as other children's classes. Attention is focused on the lostness of the child without Christ and the biblical basis for child evangelism.

Special emphasis is placed on methods of evangelism, such as The Wordless Book and the evangelistic Bible lesson. Students are also instructed in how to plan and conduct evangelistic children's classes in various venues. The course provides practical training, thus enabling students to immediately begin children's classes in their neighborhood or local school. Students are required to participate in five practical teaching opportunities with children in the context of a Good News Club®/5-Day Club®, applying the knowledge gained in the course.

II. Rationale

Jesus gave the command to "go and preach the gospel to every creature." However, subtle worldly philosophies have persuaded the majority of Christians that children cannot make a decision for Christ until they can "reason" or until they reach a certain age. It is generally accepted young children cannot receive Christ as their Savior and be born into the kingdom of God.

This course challenges the believer to reexamine biblical principles and teaching concerning child evangelism and confronts him with God's will that "not one of these little ones should perish" (Matthew 18:14). It exhorts the believer to lead the child to Christ as a first spiritual experience instead of continually attempting to give "spiritual food" to spiritually dead children (1 Corinthians 2:14).

It is expected that all assignments, including forum posts, be submitted on time. Failure to submit assignments on time will negatively affect your grade. In the case of an emergency or other extenuating circumstance, contact your online instructor before the assignment is due to make arrangements for a late submission of an assignment.

Participation in the forum discussions and live chats should be characterized by Christian courtesy. You may disagree with another student's (or instructor's) point of view, but please do so respectfully. Read the communication section of the student handbook for more details about forum, chat, and email expectations.

At the end of the first week, the course will be reviewed to determine if you are actively participating. If there is no evidence of participation, you will be dropped from the course roster. ## VIII. Grading policies and information

All students are encouraged to strive for excellence in every aspect of their training to bring honor to the Lord and to develop to their fullest potential. Therefore, all assignments must be presented on time and each assignment will be graded according to the evaluation criteria of the course.

Some assignments (worksheets, etc.) will be graded with a pass/fail grade. If the work is acceptable and completed on time, then a pass grade will be earned. If an assignment does not receive a passing grade, you will be given the opportunity to redo the assignment. All assignments earn points that determine the final course grade. All assignments MUST BE COMPLETED in order to pass the course.

It is expected that all assignments, including forum posts, be submitted on time. Failure to post forum items on time affects not only you but also your classmates and their learning. Therefore, late forum posts will negatively affect your grade. Please refer to the downloadable forum grading rubric included in the online Grading Policies and Information section of the course for information on how forums are evaluated.

Failure to submit any other assignment on time will also negatively affect your grade. In the case of an emergency or other extenuating circumstance, contact your online instructor before the assignment due date and make arrangements for a late submission.

All assignments must be posted or submitted by 11:55 PM Central Time of the day the assignment is due. In cases where the student consistently misses assignment due dates, the student may be withdrawn from the class without remuneration. The final grade for this course will be based on a 1,000 point scale. Each assignment is weighted based on the percentage of this total grade.

You will also be analyzing the Scripture passage for the evangelistic Bible lesson you are working to develop to determine where the message of salvation truths will be taught. Give yourself plenty of time to think through this step in preparing an evangelistic Bible lesson. You will also write an Introduction for your lesson. This assignment will transform your Bible Story into a Bible Lesson that speaks to the hearts of the unsaved children. Determine how you will make your lesson flow smoothly by using links. Bible Lesson Assignment 5 is not due until Monday, but you will want to give yourself plenty of time to complete this assignment, so plan to get started on this assignment early in the week.

You will determine where the application for the saved will best fit in your Bible lesson narrative, and what helps or steps to include. Trust God to guide you in this process.

This week you will be putting the finishing touches on the lesson you have been faithfully developing since Week 4 of this course. Next week you will have the opportunity to present the lesson to your proctor for evaluation. You will also have the opportunity to talk with your instructor and classmates in a live chat this week.
