- Add the total points that the student has earned and refer to the 100 point scale below to determine the grade.
- Write the letter grade or excellent (A), very good (B) or good (C) on the student's practicum evaluation sheet.
- Record the letter grade on the Student Record Sheet and the Request for Certificate Form.
- A practicum grade below a C- is a redo. The final grade would then be dropped one letter. (Example: If the redone presentation is an A- drop the final grade to a B-. If the redo is a C, drop to a C- for the final grade. The minimum grade to pass this practicum is a C-.

Grade values (100 Point scale)

A = 100-95	C+ = 84-83
A- = 94-93	C = 82-79
B+ = 92-91	C- = 78-77
B = 90-87	D and under = Redo
